

Division B presents:

How To Make Your Speeches Come Alive With Stories

Through history, stories have been one of the most important ways for humans to communicate. The greatest speakers recognise this, and all tell a story or stories in their speeches.

On March 5th, Andrew Brammer, DTM, will host, in conjunction with Division B, a unique workshop on 'How To Make Our Speeches Come Alive with Stories'.

As a previous winner of the UK and Ireland Humorous Speech contest, this event will involve, amuse and entertain. This workshop is suited to people of all abilities and is a wonderful learning opportunity for us all.

It will be held at Thomson Financial, 1 Mark Square, Leonard Street, London EC2A 4EG.

Doors will open at 6.15 for a 6.45 prompt start.

As this is a company venue, names and numbers will need to be pre-registered. To book your place please visit:

www.andrewbrammer.eventbrite.com

There is an administrative charge of £3. For more details, please visit www.thelondonspeaker.com. Look forward to seeing you there!
