

Speakers Corner table topic and picnic by Broadgate Speakers in the City

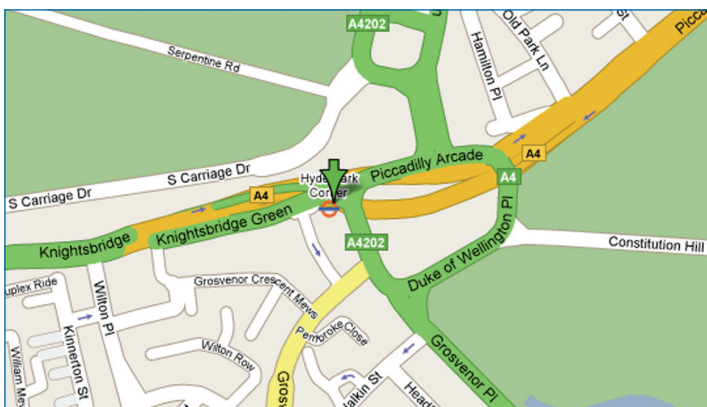

Have you ever wanted to speak in the birthplace of free speech? This Sunday, you will have the support and encouragement of toastmaster from around London for your initiation at Speakers Corner. Using a table topics format, everyone attending will be able to have their minute of fame and experience a totally different and real environment of speaking literally in public.

Perhaps this is a taste of your future public roles? A memory that you can dine out on? A chance to socialise with other clubs? Or simply to improve your confidence?

With the last of the summer, we will then enjoy Hyde Park with a picnic and play rounders for the rest of the afternoon. An ideal way to meet some new friends and find out what other clubs are doing.

Date:	Sunday 16th September 2007.
Venue:	Speakers Corner. Northeast corner of Hyde Park. Look for the yellow Broadgate Speakers in the City banner. Nearest tube is Marble Arch.
Time:	Assemble at 1.45pm. 2pm prompt start. Ending 3pm for picnic and rounders in Hyde Park (Weather permitting) or tea in a nearby establishment otherwise.
Agenda:	Table topics followed by picnic, rounders & getting to know each other.
Bring:	Plenty of clapping and cheering. We will bring the soapbox. A picnic to share afterwards and some running shoes
Cost:	Free to supportive members. If you come, you will speak!

Numbers are unlimited and no need to book unless you would like to take a role when contact Christopher on HallcjLondon@aol.com Feel free to bring a guest.

Food for thought: "Tell them and they might listen, Show them and they might remember, Involve them and they will understand."
